In gratitude for service

Last Sunday we observed The Communion of the Lord's Supper which reminded us how thankful we are for those communion stewards who work

"behind the scenes" each month preparing our communion table and cleaning up afterwards. Specifically, we thank Melia and Lee Hunter, along with Marilyn Hartsook, for supplying, preparing and cleaning up the elements, and for Joan Rankin, Pat Canty and Todd Stracener who volunteer their services in serving the elements as part of our worship.

And this from Edgardene Sheffield, coordinator of our "greeters" ministry:

"I would like personally to thank all of you who have so willingly helped with the greeters ministry. I greatly appreciate your help and look forward to many more wonderful services and events."
