The Taste of Summer

A “let’s get ready for summer” hamburger/hot dog potluck luncheon will be held immediately following our worship service today! Even if you are just learning this morning about our lunch, or if you are just visiting with us today, please join us for great food and fellowship. There’s always plenty of goodness to go ‘round!

Bible Day Camps

Please be reminded that on June 11-13 we will be holding our annual Bible Day Camps for kids. Registration officially ended as of last Sunday, but we would consider it a privilege to fit you in, still. Please call our coordinator, Becky Kelly, at 875-2352 for more information.

We thank everyone who is working in the Camps, everyone who has contributed in any way in making them possible, and we covet the prayers of our congregation for the success of these important days in the lives of our kids.

A Trio of Vital Emphases

Perhaps because it generally falls relatively close to the end of the school year, the church always seems to exhale after Easter as we settle in for the long wait for Christmas, the other great celebration of the Christian year. But actually, starting today, the church celebrates in succession three days of vital theological significance, and we encourage you to make each of them a priority in your life:

--Ascension of the Lord Sunday: this morning, we remember and celebrate the ascension of our resurrected Lord to the right hand of the Father, from which position of heavenly authority he reigns over all and intercedes for us;

--Pentecost Sunday: on June 9, we will celebrate Pentecost, the fulfillment of our ascended Lord’s promise to send the Holy Spirit, which signal event marked the birth of the Christian church;

--Trinity Sunday: two weeks from today, on June 16, we will celebrate THE defining doctrine of our faith, as we contemplate the triune existence of God.
