Bible Day Camps

Please pray for the students and workers who will be part of our Bible Day Camps, scheduled for June 11-13 of this coming week. The camps will be in session from 9:30 a.m. - 11:45 a.m. on the 11th and 12th (Tuesday & Wednesday), and from 9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. on the 13th (Thursday). Registration has officially ended, but we would consider it a privilege to fit you in, still. Please call our coordinator, Becky Kelly, at 875-2352, for more information.

We thank God for everyone who is working in the Camps, everyone who has contributed in any way in making them possible, and we covet the prayers of our congregation for the success of these important days in the lives of our kids.

An Important Time of Year

Perhaps because it generally falls relatively close to the end of the school year, or because we are beginning to turn our attention to summer plans, but for whatever reason, the church always seems to exhale after Easter as she settles in for the long wait for Christmas, the other great celebration of the Christian year. But actually, starting last Sunday, and continuing today, the church is in the midst of a celebration of three days of vital theological significance:

--Ascension of the Lord Sunday: last Sunday, we remembered and celebrated the ascension of our resurrected Lord to the right hand of the Father, from which position of heavenly authority he reigns over all and intercedes for us;

--Pentecost Sunday: today, we are celebrating Pentecost, the fulfillment of our ascended Lord's promise to send the Holy Spirit, which signal event marked the birth of the Christian church;

--Trinity Sunday: next Sunday, on June 16, the Holy Spirit having been manifested at Pentecost, we will celebrate THE defining doctrine of our faith, as we contemplate the triune existence of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We pray you will each of these celebrations part of your weekly plans.
