Parish Notes

First Tuesday Fellowship

"Come, ye thankful people, come" and join us for our First Tuesday Thanksgiving celebration, November 3rd, in our Parish Hall. There will plenty of food and fun for everyone! Games begin at 10 a.m.; our Thanksgiving celebration begins at 11:30, with lunch to follow at Noon. Join us!

Celebrating 350 Years!

Make plans to join us in worship on Sunday, November 22nd, as we bring the 2025-2026 liturgical year to a close with a celebration of "Christ the King" Sunday. This special service will also focus on the theme of thanksgiving, as a part of which, we will mark the 350th anniversary of our "Christopher Wren Pulpit," rededicating it to the service of God and His Word. This is the kind of celebration that only comes around every 50 or 100 years, so don't miss it!

Thanks for Your Generosity

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who donated to our children's Sunday school mission project. We appreciate your customary generosity which will allow us to do far more than previously planned. And if you have not received a personal note of thanks for your contribution, it is because you either left cups in the classroom without a name or gave a donation without our being aware of it. But thanks to one and all for being willing to help, just the same!
